

GUIDELINES FOR COMPETITION ORGANISERS

These guidelines must be read in conjunction with the ICC Rules 1997-2000 regarding regulations. Special attention should be paid to Sections 1, 2 and 8. Copies of this document are available from the ICC.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

The organiser shall not use other denomination than the one approved by the ICC (e.g. World Cup, World Championship, etc.). Any modification or addition, presented in any official document (including advertising) is subject to ICC written authorisation.

Written invitations shall be forwarded two month prior to the event to both UIAA and ICC Presidents.

The organiser shall provide to the ICC on application to host an event the following:

- i. the address of the venue, travel possibilities to the town (including road, train, plane), local maps which show the location of the venue in the town.
- ii. the hotels and the price range of the hotels that are to be used by the competitors and officials, and the method of booking accommodation, relevant telephone and fax numbers, and payment options; different accommodation options may be provided, but the cheapest shall not exceed 50 CHF person/night.
- iii. the type and brief description of the climbing wall to be used, including overall height, width and extent of overhang.
- iv. the audience capacity of the competition venue.
- v. the provisional programme of the event.
- vi. the registration times and venue.

ISOLATION AREA AND WARMING UP FACILITIES

The isolation zone should consist of two immediately adjacent areas:

- a) A general area for relaxation and refreshment - b) An area that includes a practice wall. There must be no access to public telephones for the competitors.

General Area

This shall be of sufficient size to accommodate comfortably all the competitors competing in a round of the competition and their equipment. The area should have a minimum temperature of 20 degrees Celsius. The area shall include:

- a) Changing facilities and toilets for both male and female competitors
- b) Drinking water. If no other refreshments are provided this must be made known to the competitors before the event via the ICC
- c) Cushioned matting and/or chairs for the competitors to perform stretching and relaxation
- d) The start lists for that round of the competition
- e) The provision of a separate smoking room will be found to be necessary. Smoking is not permitted in all other areas.

Practice wall

- a) The practice wall should provide a minimum of one square metre for each competitor present in

- c) For safety reasons the competitors should not be able to access the supporting structure
- d) The wall should not be higher than 4 metres in height nor less than 2 metres, and should be provided with suitable cushioned matting below its climbing surfaces
- e) The profile of the wall should range from vertical to horizontal with the majority of the wall overhanging in excess of 10 degrees. The amount of the wall that is horizontally overhanging should reflect the amount present in the main competition wall –
- f) The tightness of the climbing holds must be maintained at all times.

FINANCES

Fees

The relevant calendar fee shall be paid to the ICC by the hosting national Federation when the proposed competition has been officially approved in the competition calendar. 2000 table has been established as follows:

ICC Admission fee (una tantum, for those Federations not already members of CEC nor of Continental Councils) 1000 Swiss Francs; World Championship calendar fee 4000; World Cup calendar fee 1750; Continental Championship calendar fee 2000; Masters and International events calendar fee 1000; World and Continental Championships competitors fee: 70/competitor; World Cup Competitors' fee 50/competitor; International Licences (both new and renewal): 20/competitor; European Youth Cup: up to 15 participants in the circuit: 0; >15 Team entrance fee 400/team. Calendar fees are to be paid within the 31st of December of the previous year. Others upon receiving the relevant invoice.

International Jury

The travel expenses and the salary of the President of the Jury shall be covered by the ICC, as well as for the ICC Delegate.

The ICC shall cover also the travel expenses and the salary of one Category Judge for Bouldering World Cups, who will be responsible for producing: starting orders of the competition, rankings of each round and the overall standings, as well as the updated World Cup standings at the end of the event. The other Category Judge will be reimbursed by the hosting federation.

A maximum fee of 700 USD will be will be paid to the ICC for each Category judge not belonging to the host Federation. International Forerunner: the ICC recommends a salary of 3000 Swiss Francs for a full job (chief routesetter/making of the routes plus Int. For. Final supervision), and 750 Swiss Francs if he acts only as a supervisor of the routes. In addition, the competition organiser will provide the International Jury (including the ICC delegate) with appropriate accommodation from the evening before the event, until the morning after, in single rooms, three star hotel.

Prize Money

See Appendix 1

These amounts must be NET i.e. after any local taxes have been deducted. The prize money must be available to the finalists immediately after the awards ceremony. The availability of the prize money as well as the amount of the jury's reimbursements must be proved by the hosting Federation or by the Organising Committee to the ICC not later than six weeks before the start of the competition, through a bank guarantee or other system approved by the ICC.

TV RIGHTS AND SPONSORSHIP

The responsibility of sponsorship lies with the competition organiser. The suitability of the proposed sponsor(s) can be confirmed with the ICC.

However the use of tobacco sponsors and alcohol (brands above 20 percentage) is not permitted by the ICC for any UIAA approved and recognised competition.

Any branding on the surface of the wall must not impede the competitor's view of the climbing holds or structures.

PROTOCOL

All ceremonies shall comply with the IOC usual protocol. ICC medals and/trophies shall be awarded by UIAA and ICC executives present at the event.

Appendix 1

LIST OF PRIZES - 2000

DIFFICULTY AND BOULDER (same for men and women)

1. A MINIMUM amount of prizes to be distributed to competitors ranked from 1st to 6th place is established as follows:

	TOTAL (same for men and women)
	CHF	EUROS	CHF	EUROS
1.	3333	2066
2.	2000	1240
3.	1083	671
4.	583	361
5.	333	207
6.	200	103	15054	9335

2. When the total amount proposed by the organiser exceeds the minimum, the additional amount shall be spread among the semi-finalists, down to the 15th place, and if still possible, it shall increase the first six ranked competitor pursue as decided by the ICC Board, in accordance with the Organising Committee.

SPEED (same for men and women)

1. A MINIMUM amount of prizes to be distributed to competitors ranked from 1st to 4th place is established as follows:

1.	800	495
2.	600	373
3.	400	248
4.	250	156	4100	2541

2. When the total amount proposed by the organiser exceeds the minimum, the additional amount shall be spread among the 1/4 finalists (down to the 8th place). and if still possible. it shall increase

